

Foundation & Corporate Grants

PLEASE MAKE SURE TO CHECK YOUR STATE EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY PARTNERS WEBSITES FOR ADDITIONAL GRANTS. BELOW ARE JUST A FEW OF THE MANY OPPORTUNITIES.

Many foundations and corporations offer competitive grant opportunities. As you plan your budget for the year, use the table below to identify which funding would be best for your project.

Federal Funding Source	Specific Section of Funding Source	Description	Participation Fee(s)	Professional Development	Equipment & Supplies
Foundation	K.W. Kellogg	Our Interconnected Priorities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thriving Children: We support a healthy start and quality learning experiences for all children.</li> <li>Working Families: We invest in efforts to help families obtain stable, high-quality jobs.</li> <li>Equitable Communities: We want all communities to be vibrant, engaged and equitable.</li> </ul>		x	x
Corporate	Dow Jones Community Grants	The Aim High Grant Program: Supporting Out-of-School Time Programs Serving Middle School Youth. Schools can apply for grants of up to $10,000 for local school programs or projects that increase interest and excellence in STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) fields of study.	x	x	x
Foundation	Toshiba	Toshiba America Foundation (TAF) grants fund the projects ideas and materials teachers need to innovate in their Science, technology, engineering and math classrooms. TAF is interested in funding innovative projects designed by teachers or small teams of teachers for use in their own schools and classroom.		x
Foundation	jetBlue	Supports: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Students with diverse backgrounds create a lifelong interest in STEM.</li> <li>Partner with organizations to provide access to STEM programs.</li> <li>Create equal opportunities for all students to spark passion for STEM.</li> <li>Build a diverse talent for pipeline for the aviation industry.</li> </ul>	x	x	x

Federal Funding Source	Specific Section of Funding Source	Description	Participation Fee(s)	Professional Development	Equipment & Supplies
Foundation	Society for Science	The STEM Action Grant program aims to bolster and support community-driven nonprofit organizations that are working to enhance the public's understanding of science and to increase participation of underrepresented populations in STEM fields.		x	x
Corporate	Motorola	Prioritizes underrepresented and/or underserved populations within the three focus areas below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Technology and engineering education</li> <li>• First responder programming</li> <li>• Blended first responder programming and technology/engineering education programs</li> </ul>		x	x
Corporate	American Electric Power Education Grants	Teaching kids about energy and responsible use of resources is part of AEP's commitment to support education. We believe science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) education holds the promise of future innovations to build stronger communities. We are proud to support programs that supplement classroom learning in fields like agricultural and horticultural technology, robotics and experimental science that encourage exploration, problem-solving and curiosity.	x	x	x
Foundation	Aim High After School Alliance	The Aim High Grant Program: Supporting Out-of-School Time Programs Serving Middle School Youth.	x	x	x
Foundation	GAR Educator Initiative Grant	Since 2004, the Educator Initiative Grant (EIG) program has annually supported teacher-initiated, classroom-based projects in Summit County.		x	x